Track Invitational

By TED BRAZIL
Not all of the local spike talent will be competing at tonight's intial Orange County Championship meet, others have prior committments at the 11th annual Bishop Amat Relays and at the 6th annual Arcadia Invitation.

Santa Ana Valley and Lowell high schools head the county delegation to the Bishop Amat Relays at Mt. San Antonio College. Running events will start at 12 p.m.

The Arcadia meet, which has developed into one of the southland's most prestigious prep meets, has attracted some of the county's top individuals including El Dorado two-miler Pat Dutzi (9:07.2), Garden Grove sprinter Jim Straw (9.7) and pole vaulter Steve Pulvers (14.2), and Rancho Alamitos shot putter Jeff Klein (57-0 1/4).
Field events start at 6:30 p.m.

The Orange County Championships will start at 6:30 with field events at Bolsa Grande Stadium. Heats for tonight's finals were held Friday afternoon.

Santa Ana Valley will have the top sprinter at the Bishop Amat Relays in junior Jim Rohrig who had clocked a windy 9.8 and a 22.0.

Rohring, who led the Falcons to team titles at Southern Counties, the Tustin Relays and at Shorty Smith, will meet Mon-

Elam Pitches Biola Victory

LA MIRADA—Biola College's Eagles took advantage of being the visitor on its home diamond Friday as Steve Elam pitched them to a 6-3 win over Westmont College.

Making up a rainout, Biola backed Elam's 10-strikeout performance with an errorless defense. Scott Fischer doubled in Biola's first run in the third, Elam homered in the eighth, and Rich Clark singled in a run rovira's Marvin Holmes (9.9 and 22.3), West Covina's Livlin Crow (9.9), and Monrovia's Pat Cra-nor (10.0 and 22.4).

Lowell is taking a strong group which includes miler Mark Maranto (4:23.3), half miler Alan Schafter (1:59.4), pole vaulter Bob Goto (14-10), shot putter Rich Torbert (57-2 1/2), and sprinter Mike Gibson (9.9 and 22.6).

Orange County teams at the Bishop Amat Relays are Kennedy, La Habra, Mater Dei, Saddleback, Servite along with the Falcons and Patriots.

At Arcadia, Dutzi will be tying to lower his two-mile clocking. He will be pushed by Aviation's Hal Keeting (9:10.0), whom he beat at Huntington Beach's Southern Counties when he clocked the 9:07.2.

Orange's Kent Norton is also in the race. Norton's best is a 9:17.4, but that was run in a dual meet where he doubled back with a 4:28.0 mile. A powerful runner, Norton should be able to go much faster tonight since he will not have to worry about running the mile later.

Dutzi is also entered in the mile race where he will meet some of the state's top prep distance runners. Santa Monica's Curtis Beck, who ran 4:09.1 at Southern Counties but has a personal best of 4:04.2, is entered in the race.

North Torrance's Barrie Williams, who ran 4:06 in last year's meet, and Bellflower's Bob O'Brien, the 3-A cross-country champion who is looking for a sub 4:10 clocking, are also entered.

Rancho Alamitos' Jeff Klein got off a life time best throw of 57-0 1/4 this week, but he will be up against the nation's best prep shot putter, David Doupe of Inglewood.

Doupe leads the nation with a put of 66-10, while teammate John Owen has thrown 60-9 this year.
